

Enhancing Teaching and Learning CID Workshop Series 2011

Centre for Instructional
Development

Workshop 6: Mastering My Practice Friday November 4, 2011

Explore the difference between process and content. Explore the process.

Date: Friday November 4, 2011

Time: 8:30 am-11:30 am

Location: Room 1223 – B, BWY

This is the sixth in a series of eight workshops facilitated by Jorge Ocegüera, BSc, EMBA, MEd.

Jorge Ocegüera holds an Executive MBA, MEd in Adult Learning and Global Change and is a Certified Professional Facilitator. Jorge also has 12 years of experience designing and facilitating corporate learning experiences, adult learning, graduate and undergraduate college and university

Workshop 6: Mastering My Practice – Friday November 4, 2011

Explore self-assessment and reflective practice.

Workshop 7: Designing Learning Processes – Friday November 25, 2011

Practice intentional learning process design and put it into practice.

Workshop 8: Improving the Quality of Group Work - Friday, December 16, 2011

Explore group theory. Design more engaging and effective group activities.

Faculty are encouraged to register for all five remaining workshops to maximize the benefits of Jorge's expertise. Access the online registration form by clicking on the 'Events' tab at:

<http://cid.vcc.ca>