Wednesday, February 6, 2013

11:50 am to 12:40 pm

Room: 1227 Broadway Building B

Jack Lochhead once said “We should be teaching students how to think; instead we are primarily teaching them what to think.”

This workshop will outline the “Habits of Mind” developed by Dr. Art Costa who was director of the Institute for Intelligent Behaviour. We will discuss the 15 characteristics of good thinkers and look at ways we can further develop these behaviours in our students and ourselves.
